

Unlock Valuable Savings on the Medications You Need with the Prescription Discount Card from Inside Rx

No one should have to worry about how they're going to afford their medications. If you or your family members are currently paying for pricey medications, you may be able to access discounts by using the Inside Rx® prescription discount card.

Inside Rx is a prescription savings program made available to you by Lifetime Benefit Solutions (LBS) that provides brand and generic medication discounts at more than 60,000 participating pharmacies. This prescription savings card is your all-access pass to affordable prescriptions. Even if you are not currently enrolled in any LBS products or services, you may be able to save up to 80%* on generic and brand medications for you and your family with the Inside Rx prescription discount card.

Pay Less for Your Prescriptions

There are no fees, sign-ups, or obligations required to receive these valuable discounts on qualified prescriptions. The prescription discount card is simple to download and free to use. Simply present your Inside Rx card with a valid prescription at a participating pharmacy to start saving.

Inside Rx is not insurance and is separate from your drug coverage. No insurance? No problem. If you don't currently have insurance, give the Inside Rx prescription discount card a try, and see how much you could save.

By visiting InsideRx.com/LBS, you can:

- Download a free prescription discount card right to your phone
- Find the lowest price available for medications outside of your pharmacy benefit
- Search for drug prices at the most convenient participating pharmacies

From the site, easily search for both brand name and lower cost generic versions of medications you are currently taking.

The Inside Rx prescription discount card provides you with:

UP TO 80% average savings on the cost of generic medications*

UP TO 40% average savings on the cost of brand medications*

Easy access to savings at more than 60,000 participating pharmacies

Show the card below to the pharmacist on your next trip to a participating pharmacy, or visit InsideRx.com/LBS to download your free card today.

Inside Rx provides discounts on prescription medications to employees of LBS clients. Inside Rx is not part of LBS.

*Average savings based on usage and Inside Rx data as compared to cash prices; average savings for all generics are 78%; 37% for select brand medications; restrictions apply.
